

Charles E. Gibson

Detroit, Michigan

- 1910 Charles E. Gibson (1870-?) is a theater musician in Detroit, 639 Wabash Ave (census).
- 1917 C. E. Gibson, manufacturer of Crystal mouthpieces for baritone or trombone, 16 Fern Place, Detroit (Musical Messenger, January, below).

IMPROVE YOUR TONE 100%
Use the Wonderful New
CRYSTAL MOUTHPIECE

CRYSTAL METAL

Exceptionally brilliant, resonant tones, and long-looked-for execution, in perfect tune, on any make of instrument, made possible with the least effort.

A beautiful sanitary mouthpiece, that will produce a lifetime of invaluable use without the danger of infection from corroded mouthpieces.

Helpful to instructors for illustrative and corrective purposes. You see the lips in action. It has revolutionized brass instrument playing—no more tired lips—no more missing tones in important passages.

It is being adopted by leading artists the world over. Order one for trial TO-DAY. Money back if not enthusiastic. Price for Baritone or Trombone, $3.00 net.

Dept. 3 C. E. GIBSON, Mfr., 16 Fern Place, Detroit, Mich.

- 1920 Charles E. Gibson, theater musician, 1351 23rd St, Detroit (census).
- 1930 Charles E. Gibson, orchestra musician, 6621 Roosevelt Ave, Detroit (census).