

Charles Williams Stores

New York City

1913 The Charles Williams Stores incorporates with $1 million capital; offices at #56 Pine St; mail order catalog only with a warehouse opening in May at #59 John St, Brooklyn (photos 1 & 5) (NY Times, March 1)

1918 William Peate of Peate's Music House, Utica, and Robert White of Cleveland have formed Peate & White in Utica and have purchased the entire stock of musical merchandise from the Charles Williams Stores, Inc., Brooklyn for $50,000 (Music Trade Review, June)

1928 Charles Williams Stores is purchased by National Bellas Hess

Cornet shown in photo 2 is one of the first instruments I purchased at a yard sale back in the 1990s. I believe it was made in Czechoslovakia.

Photos 3 & 4 from Horn-u-copia.net and marked "Austria" and "Special Class B".

They are all probably made by B&F in Graslitz.
