

Frank W. Anglund

Chicago

- 1903 Frank W. Anglund is born on November 24 in Kansas City.
- 1920 Frank is living with his parents in Wyandotte, Kansas. (census)
- 1930 Frank is living at 1005 Isabella in Houston, Texas, and playing the trumpet for a radio orchestra. (census)
- 1935 Frank is living at 814 Sunnyside Ave in Chicago. (census)
- 1936 Frank marries Margaret (b. 1916 in FL) in Chicago. He starts making trumpet mouthpieces at this time and becomes a dealer for trumpets made by Elden Benge. (Joe Lill)
- 1940 Frank is playing lead trumpet for the Chicago Theater and living at 814 Sunnyside Ave. (census)
- 19?? Frank partners with Santy Runyon to start Runyon Studios. Frank was a trumpet teacher there.
- 1946 Frank switched from the theater to the NBC orchestra in Chicago. (Lill)
- 1955 Frank and his family move to West Palm Beach, Florida. (obit.)
- 1960 Frank Anglund dies on October 28 from a stroke. At the time, he owned a hardware store. (obituary in Kansas City Star) He is buried in Kansas City.

I acquired the mouthpiece shown at the top in 2022 with an old Besson trumpet from Indiana. It's also marked "BB", which according to one posting, would have been the original owner's initials.

