

John W. Coffey Jr

Boston, Massachusetts

- 1907 John W. Coffey, Jr is born in New Bedford, MA to John and Catherine Coffey.
- 1932 John is attending the Curtis Institute of Music.
- 1937 John joins the Cleveland Orchestra on trombone.
- 1940 John and wife Mary are living at #3649 Selsby Rd in University Heights, Ohio and he is working as an orchestra musician. (census)
- 1941 John moves to Boston to play bass trombone for the Boston Pops Orchestra.
- 1952 John ends his career with the Boston Pops.
- 1981 John dies on January 12th in Barnstable, MA.

A few mouthpieces have shown up with his name, but it's uncertain who actually made them for him. Tottle & Son of Boston said they didn't do them. The one at right is for trombone and one person said they had a trumpet mouthpiece.

