

John Balthus Dash & Son

New York City

1765 “John Balthus Dash Tinman from Germany. At his house near the Oswego Market makes the best of French Horns ... Philadelphia buttons and Shoe Buckles, and will sell them very reasonably by wholesale or retail.” (NY Mercury, March 18th)

1786 John B Dash, tin, copper & ironmongering store, #67 Broadway (directory)

1789-1793 John B Dash, Sr, tinsmith, #68 Broadway
John B Dash, Jr, copper & tin plate, ironmonger, #61 Broadway (dir)

1794-96 John Sr now at #138 Broadway; Jr at #147 Broadway

1804 John Sr. dies on September 25th

1820 John Jr. dies on November 25th

One hunting horn found in Brussels collection (NLI)