

Huber-Smith Manufacturing

St. Louis, Missouri

- 1910 Joseph L. Huber (1888-?), musician soloist, St. Louis (census).
- 1916 Joseph L. Huber, teacher at #3815 Magnolia Ave (Missouri School for the Blind, photo 2), r. #3416 Wyoming Ave (directory).
- 1918 Leroy Smith, musician, #4054 Finney; Charles S. Smith, musician, r. #4001 Olive St. (2 possible Smith partners in city directory).
- 1917 Self-employed musician with lost eyesight born January 27, 1888 in St Louis (WWI draft).
- 1918 Ad for Huber-Smith True-Tone waterproof paper mutes for cornet, #3416 Wyoming (photo 1), St Louis (Musical Messenger).
- 1920 Ad for Huber-Smith Perfectone mute (formerly True-Tone), #3413 Wyoming (International Musician, Sept.) [perhaps they changed the name due to a Buescher trademark].
- 1920 Joseph L. Huber, music teacher, #3413 Wyoming; Charles S. Smith, musician, #3935 Lafayette Ave (census).
- 1930, 1940, & 1950 Joseph Huber, music teacher, #3413 Wyoming (census).

1920 International Musician ad

OCT. 1920 Int. Musician

PERFECTONE MUTE

(Formerly True-Tone)

Made of fibrous board, heavily bronzed and absolutely waterproof. Far superior to anything on the market. Special introductory price to the profession. Prices:

TRUMPET or CORNET, $0.85

TROMBONE,
sizes 6, 6½, 7, 7½.....$1.50

TROMBONE,
sizes 8, 8½, 9.....$2.00

Sent postpaid upon receipt of Money Order. No C. O. D. order accepted.

HUBER-SMITH, Mfgs
3413 Wyoming St. ST. LOUIS, MO.