

La Sete Band Instruments

Los Angeles, California

- 1913 Henryk Splewinski was born in Wolbrom, Poland (naturalization papers).
- 1922 Stefania was born in Jaroslaw, Poland (nat. papers).
- 1949 Henryk and Sefania were married in Vienna, Austria.
- 1950 They immigrated to New Orleans.
- 1952 Henryk was listed as a musical instrument maker in his declaration of intent to become a US citizen.
- 1956 They were naturalized as Henry and Stephanie Splevin and living at 1337-1/2 S. Highland Ave in LA.
- 1960s Splevin's Music Center was at 8834 Pico Blvd in LA (photo 1). They sold band instruments, sponsored local high school band events like the Teenage Fair, and sold the La Sete brand instruments. Trumpets were made by Keilwerth in Germany and flutes in France.
- 1967 Splevin's incorporated on August 21 (Opencorporates.com).
- 1971 Splevin's Covine Music Center was incorporated on July 26 with an address at 6399 Wilshire Blvd in LA.
- 1980 The Covine center was dissolved on February 29.
- 1981 Henry Splevin died in March.
- 1984 Splevin's Music was dissolved on March 6.

